Widewalls

One of the annual spring highlights of the Parisian cultural calendar, the Urban Art Fair returns to the city for its fourth exceptional edition. Once again occupying the premises of Le Carreau du Temple, it will bring together both local and international exhibitors and a long list of established artists. The fair has also prepared a rich program of live painting, film screenings, and digital experiences, bringing the best that urban, street and graffiti art have to offer today.

Urban Art Fair 2019 welcomes 32 exhibiting galleries, 11 of which are having their debut. Here is a list of galleries whose booths you should definitely check out.
